

An international competition designed to help students understand the value of resolving disputes through mediation so that they can apply it in their personal and professional lives.

3 reasons to join:

- Each tournament provides 2 days of mediator training
- Teams have the opportunity to network with other students from around the U.S. and the world.
- A unique opportunity to introduce yourself to the world of mediation, which is critical to a successful professional practice after graduation.

Training will take place at ALBA Graduate Business School in downtown Athens on May 14 – 15.

The competition will take place at the American College of Greece (ACG) on May 16-17.
