

INADR 9th WORLD MEDIATION CONGRESS & 17TH Annual International Law School Mediation Tournament
Loyola University Chicago School of Law, Chicago, Illinois, USA
March 6 – 10, 2018
For More Information go to INADR.ORG

Join us in Chicago for an international forum for the exchange of ideas among experienced mediators and advocates practicing in all areas of mediation including family, commercial, tort, community, employment and international mediation. After eight successful congresses at Drake Law School, the International Academy of Dispute Resolution WORLD MEDIATION CONGRESS is coming to Loyola University School of Law, Chicago to be held in conjunction with the INADR 17th International Law School Mediation Tournament. The Congress will take place March 6-7 and will feature a wide variety of speakers and workshops covering all things mediation, highlighted by Kenneth Cloke’s “The Conflict of Politics and The Politics of Conflict: How to Think About and Respond to Political Conflicts.” Ken Cloke is an internationally-recognized mediator, dialogue facilitator, conflict resolution systems designer, teacher, public speaker, author of numerous books and articles, and pioneer and leader in the field of mediation and conflict resolution for the last 37 years. Immediately following the Congress, on March 8-10, Loyola University School of Law will be hosting INADR’s mediation tournament with law students from all over the world competing and learning about mediation. Students are invited to attend the Congress to interact with and learn from the professionals speaking and attending. There are also opportunities for professionals to serve as Judges at the tournament.
